WEB WRITING: Our New Service

(Company name) has brought copywriting into its stable of services for clients. Content is an important part of a web strategy and that's why we are now offering content writing as part of our web solution.

We have professional writers who can create:

- web and search engine optimised copy
- blog copy
- press releases
- articles
- newsletters

If you have your own copy but want it polished, then our editors can help to make your copy sparkle ready for publication. It is just one way (company name) goes further for its clients.

Please contact us (link) if you are interested in our new copywriting service.
